WHAT WOMEN THINK MANY THOUSANDS SHORT

Women Rock the Cradle and Rule the World. Charles M. Charnley Charged With Embezzlement.

BALANCE OF POWER THEIRS HIS WHEREABOUTS UNKNOWN

Women Have Proved Themselves All-Powerful in the History of the World—No Important Move Is Ever Made Without the Aid of Women's Wit.

"Of course, the larger part of our customers are women," said Mr. Pettit, in reply to the question of the reporter.

"We are glad that they are, for women, when they come here, know exactly what they want, ask for it, and we have no trouble as a rule in suiting them to their satisfaction."

"What we are most grateful to them for is their kindly, courteous and ever considerate manner, which makes the running of a business like this infinitely easier than it would otherwise be."

"Yes," continued the merchant, "we have opened our fall clothing stock, and shall be pleased to show our patrons through it, even if they are not ready to buy."

TWELVE INSTANTLY KILLED

Awful Explosion in the Sunshine Mine in Colorado.

Remains So Badly Mangled They Were Identified Only by Absence at Roll-Call.

Glenwood Springs, Colo., Sept. 4.—Eleven Italians and one American workman were instantly killed just before 6 o'clock yesterday by an explosion in the Sunshine mine, sixteen miles south of Glenwood Springs.

The dead are Anton Martin, George Dannon, Louis Dannon, Louis Raki, Joe Martini, Joe Casarandi, John Jenson, Antonio Epilio, Theodore Polizzi, John Andriani, Emil Andriani, and Francis McCleod.

The Sunshine is the property of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company. About fifty men have been employed in getting out coal for cooking, for which there was a sudden demand. The workmen had put in a final blast before quitting time. It resulted in a blow out, which was instantly followed by an explosion.

Eleven Italians and McCleod were working in one chamber of the mine, and all of them were instantly killed. The explosion filled the mine with smoke and dust, and for some time it was thought that all the workmen in the mine had been killed. It was an hour before the workmen in the adjacent mines were able to go into the Sunshine morning.

The dead were so badly mangled and burned from the explosion that they were recognized only by the records which showed who were working in that shaft at the time of the accident.

The work of removing the dead was not completed until nearly midnight. It is thought that too many blasts, resulting from the incessant work had filled the chamber with coal dust, which was exploded by the blow-out.

Thomas F. Meany's Appointment. The friends of Thomas F. Meany will be glad to learn of his appointment as clerk to Gen. Brady, of the Richmond Internal Revenue district. The sisters of Charles Meany also miss Mr. Meany, who was always ready and willing to aid them. Mr. Meany will depart for his new field of duty on Monday morning.

GUARDS ABOUT MCKINLEY

The President Constantly Protected by Private Detectives.

ALWAYS CLOSELY WATCHED

Extra Precautions Were Taken While He Was the Guest of the City of Columbus Yesterday—Not Personally Alarmed, He Yields to the Solicitations of Friends.

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 4.—Word has reached Canton that special precautionary methods were taken at Columbus to protect President McKinley from possible harm while there. He was guarded by detectives and police at every step.

It has long been an open secret here that President McKinley has been attended by private detectives for more than a year.

Ever since the coming of the great crowds to Canton about a year ago to see the candidate for the Presidency, Mr. McKinley has been carefully watched by secret service men. This was thought best by his friends, because of the threatening letters received by him at that time and several times since.

With the same object in view, citizens at Columbus yesterday watched the President. Supt. Kelley and Director Williams, of the police force, gave their personal attention to arranging the details necessary to insure the safety of the President's Chief Magistrate while he was a guest of Columbus. Police were everywhere. From the moment he left the car at the depot in that city he was under the closest surveillance.

To keep carry out the plans of the Columbus officers, and prevent any possible accident to the President, the police, or any interference with the President, it was arranged, after due consultation, to have all traffic suspended on High street during the time the President was en route from the station to the hotel where he was stopping.

The President was met by police and military officers. He was escorted by two teams to the carriage, and driven between lines of soldiers and policemen. The streets were patrolled by regular and special officers, and a cordon was formed to keep all persons out of the route of the President's motorcade.

The action of the Surety Company caused the arrest of William H. Swift, who notified the concern that the deficit existed and it would be expected to pay $25,000, the amount under which Mr. Charnley was bonded by the company. Mr. Swift is the treasurer for the board. Mr. Charnley was Treasurer of the Presbyterian Board of Aid for Colleges and Academics in Chicago—Alleged Stealings Said to Amount to Over a Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Warrants charging embezzlement have been issued for the arrest of Charles M. Charnley, for fifteen years treasurer of the Presbyterian Board of Aid for Colleges and Academics. He cannot be found.

The American Surety Company caused the arrest of William H. Swift, who notified the concern that the deficit existed and it would be expected to pay $25,000, the amount under which Mr. Charnley was bonded by the company. Mr. Swift is the treasurer for the board. Mr. Charnley was Treasurer of the Presbyterian Board of Aid for Colleges and Academics in Chicago—Alleged Stealings Said to Amount to Over a Hundred Thousand Dollars.

In addition to the shortage in the Presbyterian board funds, it is said that Charnley used money placed in his care by friends and the charity funds of the church to which he belonged, making the total amount of his alleged embezzlement $115,000.

TWO POLICEMEN ON TRIAL

McDaniel and Horton Charged With Neglect and Intoxication.

At the regular session of the police trial board, held today in Judge Pugh's court, there were but two cases on the docket. The first tried was that of Officer McDaniel, of the Third, who had been charged with neglect of duty, and the second case was that of Policeman Horton, of the Fourth, against whom a charge of drunkenness on duty was preferred.

Officer McDaniel is alleged to have spent half an hour in a house in the alley between O street and Massachusetts avenue and Sixth and Seventh streets. Aspector Pearson testified to this effect.

Officer McDaniel acknowledged that he was in the house for that length of time, but explained to Judge Pugh that he went to see about some destitute children.

According to his testimony Horton showed evidence of intoxication while drilling at the station on August 31. Horton's reputation, he continued, was of the best, and he had never had occasion to say a word to him heretofore.

Horton said that he had only drunk two bottles of beer, and that he was not unable to do street duty. The drill, he said, would show the slightest evidence of intoxication.

ANARCHISTS IN BARCELONA.

Police Officials Fired on and Wounded by a Midnight Assault.

Barcelona, Sept. 4.—The chief and assistant chief of police of Barcelona were fired upon last night and both wounded. The shooting occurred at midnight. The assailant, who was armed with a revolver, was arrested.

The chief of police has been prominent in directing the recent prosecutions of anarchists, and it is presumed that the attack upon him arose from that fact.

Pans, Sept. 4.—It is learned that the attack upon Senor Portas, chief of the Barcelona police, who was shot with a revolver in that city last evening, was in pursuance of a plot to assassinate him formed by anarchists here, who sent the chief's assailant, a man named Sempau, to Barcelona, to carry out the plan.

Sham Battle About Cuba.

The Ladies' Cuban Aid Society will hold an outdoor meeting on Monday at Congress Heights. Col. P. M. Snowden, ex-Representative Turner of New York, Mr. Charles C. Alford, Dr. Foster B. Winn, and a number of other prominent sympathizers of Cuba will speak. After the meeting there will be a sham battle between the Spanish and Uncle Sam's forces, when Uncle Sam will rescue Cuba after a hard struggle.

Satisfactory Mail Arrangements.

United States Consul Paul Wieseke reports that the steps taken by the Postmaster General to send mail to the interior of Nicaragua from New York via Colon, Panama, Corinto and San Juan del Norte, Granada, gives great satisfaction to the people of that section. If it is kept up, the consul says, it will give the people of the interior of Nicaragua five mails a month from New York.

MR. ARRINGTON HELD.

Attorney Lipscomb's Interesting Remark Concerning Senator Hanna.

After hearing further testimony in the case of Thomas B. Arrington, ex-postoffice inspector charged with embezzlement, Judge Mills decided that enough facts had been brought out to warrant holding Mr. Arrington for the grand jury.

Mr. Lipscomb, during the hearing, made one assertion that caused considerable comment. He said: "Mr. Hanna is a brother-in-law of Senator Mark Hanna, and not long ago was in the Pension Office on work which resulted in the discharge of several Democrats, who were replaced by Republicans. Now, he has got in his hands the Pension Office. They could not 'fire' Mr. Arrington without some 'charge,' and this is the charge, embezzlement. This is a perjury, and it will be shown up as such if the case ever comes up for trial."

LABOR'S CALL FOR ACTION

Organizations Requested to Send Delegates to Chicago.

PROGRAM OF THE LEADERS

Wage Workers and Trades Unions—To Take Into Consideration the Rights of the People Under the National and State Constitutions. Signers to the Circular.

St. Louis, Sept. 4.—The committee appointed by the recent labor convention in this city to draw up a call for the convention to be held in Chicago on September 27 made its report by issuing the following circular last night:

To Trade Unions, Wage Workers, Producers and Friends Greeting:

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the representatives of labor and reform organizations of the United States, in convention assembled in St. Louis, August 30 and 31, 1897, all labor and reform organizations are hereby requested to elect delegates to attend a convention to be held in Chicago, Ill., September 27, 1897, for the following purposes:

1. To consider what further means shall be taken in support of the miners on strike, if said strike should be renewed.

2. To consider the organization and practical co-operation of trades unions and all other labor and reform organizations in matters of common interest.

3. To devise ways and means to restore to the people their inalienable rights, and especially their right of self-government under the Constitution of the United States and the several state constitutions.

4. To take such action as is consistent with trade union citizenship, liberty of thought and action, when it does not involve natural rights of citizens, as well as to bring about a more equitable condition of affairs in our social and industrial life.

The basis of representation will be one delegate for each trade union, labor or reform organization, and one delegate from each Congressional district.

Provided, That no delegate shall have a voice or vote who is not a wage worker, producer, farmer, or representative of an organization that has for its object the improvement of the condition of the working and producing classes.

PRIVATE KENNEY A DESIRER.

Official Report of the Policeman's Absence Made by Lieut. Amies.

Private William Kenney, of the police force, who disappeared from No. 1 station several days ago, was reported as a deserter by Lieut. Amies today. Major Moore will transmit the matter to the Commissioner, and the dishonorable discharge of the missing policeman will follow.

Nothing further has been heard of Kenney. Neither his wife nor his brother, Lieut. Kenney, of the Eighth precinct, has the slightest idea where he has gone, but the theory that he has gone to Klondike is still considered the most plausible explanation of his whereabouts.

FUNERAL HONORS TO A MONKEY.

A Sailor's Simian Pet Has Black-Jackets for Pallbearers.

Annapolis, Md., Sept. 4.—A pet monkey belonging to Gunder's Mate William Bentley, of the Naval Academy, died Thursday night and was buried yesterday with honors. Six sailors acted as pallbearers. Carpenter John Jones made the coffin. The monkey was named "Chick." He was purchased by Mr. Bentley last January at Rio Janeiro, and was a favorite aboard ship.

His death resulted from convulsions, caused by eating too freely of yellow paint, with which the deck of the frigate Santee was being covered.

Mrs. Sailer's Bad Accident.

Mrs. C. C. Sailer, of No. 3219 N street northwest, was seriously injured by being thrown from a carriage, a runaway accident on Columbia road yesterday afternoon. The other occupants of the carriage, Mr. Sailer, a young lady and a child, were slightly injured. Mrs. Sailer, who is an invalid, had her right arm broken and received a scalp wound. The others received numerous bruises and were badly shaken up, but were otherwise uninjured. Mrs. Sailer was reported improving this morning.

WOODS STILL HAS HIS JOB

HEARING NEXT SATURDAY

Postoffice Officials Regard This Case as of the Last Importance to All Departments—Mr. Heath Says It Is a Test of the Whole Civil Service Reform Question.

The case of Mr. John G. Woods, superintendent of mails at the Louisville postoffice against Postmaster General Gary and Assistant Postmaster General Heath, to enjoin them from removing him from his position was today postponed until next Saturday, on petition of the defendants to allow them to prepare their case.

Mr. Woods' attorney, Mr. H. S. Low, also submitted an amended bill this morning containing a more specific statement of the reasons for his suit and quoting the civil service rules of November 2, 1896, and of July 27, 1897, applicable to his case. The Woods case is now considered by all the departments a most important one.

It has been decided to make of it a test case of all the questions that may possibly be involved in these two civil service rules restricting the removal of employees. These latest additions to the rules have never been the subject of a legal discussion, and their status and scope are to a certain extent not only undefined, but even not generally understood.

The bill of Mr. Woods, with its amendments, now recites that the gentleman was appointed to the position of superintendent of mails at the Louisville postoffice on June 1, 1893, at a salary of $1,700, and that he has faithfully performed his service; that the civil service act and its rules prohibit the removal of the charges of rank of an officer in the classified service holding a position obtained by competitive examination, because of his political or religious opinions or affiliations, or for any other cause without the preference of charges, to which he shall have the opportunity to answer; and that, contrary to these laws, the Postoffice Department has attempted to remove him from his office and has given him notice of the intention to remove him, without stating any cause. He asks that a temporary and perpetual injunction be granted against the department.

A reporter for The Times called on Mr. Heath this morning with reference to the filing of the amended bill. He said: "The Postoffice Department and the Department of Justice, to regard the case as a test case, a test of the whole matter concerned for."

"We all with the new rules of the civil service law defined. The Postoffice Department, especially, is interested, having so many letter-carriers and clerks whose places will be involved in the decision made by the court. It is a most important case. It will be a cause celebre."

The Civil Service Commission has nothing to say, no matter what individual opinions the commissioners may have to ward a desire to see their new rules upheld. The Civil Service Commission has no statement of any kind from any of the commissioners this morning.

WORK OF THE PATENT OFFICE.

Commissioner Butterworth Submits His Annual Report.

The Commissioner of Patents today submitted his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior.

The total number of applications and caveats filed during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1897, was 40,884; number of patents granted, trade-marks, labels and prints registered, 25,819; number of patents withheld and expired, 17,618.

The receipts of the Patent Office from all sources was $1,345,779.44, and the expenditures, $1,029,644.39, leaving a surplus of $317,135.05. The amount in the United States Treasury to the account of the Patent Office, $5,093,614.23. The number of applications awaiting action is 12,241.

On the 30th of June, 1897, seven of the inventors had their work within one month of date, sixteen were between one and two months, and the other two were within two to three months from date.

Commissioner Butterworth calls attention to the steady increase in the business of the office, and says that if the work is not to fall hopelessly in arrears an increase of force must be provided during the ensuing fiscal year. Such increase will be included in the estimates which he will submit within a few days.

KILLED BY AN ENRAGED BOAR.

A Child Disemboweled by a Savage Beast.

Wilmington, Fla., Sept. 4.—A most horrible tragedy was enacted here today, in which a little five-year-old lad was killed by a boar, the enraged animal literally disemboweling the child. A big boar rushed savagely at the boy, who was walking along the street, and his sharp tusks cut him on the leg. The brute again charged, and his tusks caught him in the abdomen, ripping him open in a most shocking manner.

Some women ran out with brooms and clubs, but the mad boar chased them into the house, ripping the dress from a fifteen-year-old girl. He then returned to the boy and savagely attacked him, horribly mangle his body. A man attacked the boar with a pitchfork, but finally retreated, after getting a savage rip in the leg from the boar's tusks. Guns were secured and the boar was finally killed.
